SUMMARY OF STATISTICS

There are an estimated 167 listed members of Clube Don Luis Philipe, counting heads of household and spouses who reside in the state of Rhode Island.

As of May 2005, forty-three percent of the heads of household members – 72 members – have been identified as registered to vote. If all members of the households are counted - that is adult children and seniors not listed as heads of household - there are an estimated total of 163 registered voters affiliated with the organization.

As Part I shows, voter turnout for Clube Don Luis Philipe often exceeds the state of Rhode Island average. The Don Luis heads of household turnout for the November 2006 General Elections was 61 percent, as compared to the state turnout of 57 percent.

Part II contains graphs on age voter turnout rates. Voter turnout is not uniform through the age groups. In the November 2006 General Elections, the voter turnout of all Clube Don Luis Philipe voters consistently increased with age. For example, voters between 30 and 40 years old had a 40 percent turnout in the November 2006 elections, while voters between 60 and 70 years old had a 79 percent turnout.
